Dedication

We dedicate this book to two coaches, Curtis Hanson and Fred Kellett, who have done more than their share in making us — as students — happy to be a part of Washington High School.

"Coach" Hanson, as he is fondly called by his students, has produced excellent choirs with his fine musical ability and his deep interest in his work. It takes more than ability to produce a good choir — everyone must give something of himself. Were it not for the confidence he puts in his choirs and the respect they have for him, we would have no real music. His choirs have sung in Orchestra Hall in Chicago, Augustana College in South Dakota, Gustavus Adolphus College in St. Peter, Minnesota, St. Louis, Missouri, Hamline University in Minneapolis, Minnesota, and St. Olaf College.

Coach Kellett and his great basketball teams have made this a favorite sport at W.H.S. His teams' records in the years past have proven what a capable man he is. To have such fine teams one must have as much confidence, respect, patience, and a genuine understanding as our Coach Kellett has. In turn the team — like the choir — must feel the same towards him, which they surely have shown.

Both of these men are held in high esteem, not only by participants in choir or basketball, but by all who know them and have had a chance to enjoy what comes from their work.

We sincerely hope that "Coach" Hanson and Coach Kellett are as proud of being teachers at W.H.S. as we are of having them with us.

The mystic tie that binds our hearts, in joking and laughter, in silence and thought . . .

The magic link of common interests,
Joining together students and their teachers . . .

There is a hand that cast a shadow of direction,
A light that guides us and casts a beam of reflection.

The hand of brotherhood that reaches out across the seas, uniting continents.

There are bonds that tie our thoughts in togetherness,
a link that leads a way to our future and success . . .

Today we climb the stairway to success together;
Soon we face the world alone . . .

Days in school
So soon are past —
But memories, friendships,
Ever last.

ACTIVITIES

Queen Marjorie makes a lovely picture as she begins her royal reign.

Queen Marjorie, attended by Mike Volkl and Rick Nolan, presides over the downtown pep fest.

Bruce Tollefson, Burnett Dybvik, and Mike Engelhart, express the thoughts of many students as they serenade Queen Marjorie with "You Must Have Been A Beautiful Baby."

Friendships Are Strengthened and Renewed During 1962 Homecoming.

Resounding applause, cries of joy, and tears of happiness highlighted the crowning of Marjorie Langer as Homecoming Queen for 1962. Miss Linnea Jensen, 1961 Homecoming Queen, had the crowning honors.

Selection of the queen began with each senior social studies class choosing representatives. Seniors then chose fifteen girls to go before the entire student body who selected seven of the fifteen to become the queen and her royal court. Attending Queen Marjorie were Joyce Trask, Judy Shortridge, Marcia Martinson, Ilse Lackner, Patty Anderson, and Mary Cockrell. By voting for one of the top seven candidates, the seniors selected a queen to reign over homecoming. Chosen by vote of the senior class to be escorts were Mike Volkl, Rich Nolan, James Peterson, Guy Gustafson, Carlos Workman, Gary Summers, Gerry Blanck, Steve Esser, John Conway, Roger Halverson, Bob Johnson, Jim Ebert, Dale Kangas, and Mike Britton.

After her coronation, Queen Marjorie began her reign by riding in the traditional homecoming parade on the decorative throne of the Student Council float. Students and alumni enjoyed a snappy band and many unique floats. The homecoming slogan, "Roll Over the Falls," was represented in many ways, including decorated tires being rolled down the street, and a person on a float being rolled over a falls. Following the parade, students and alumni joined in an enthusiastic pep fest, urging the team on to victory. The football team proved equal to the occasion by winning the homecoming game against Little Falls, 19 to 14. Along with an exciting victory, a beautiful Indian summer evening contributed to the success of the homecoming game.

After the game, high school students and former graduates attended a dance sponsored by the Student Council. Queen Marjorie and her six lovely attendants were guests of honor. The dance provided a happy ending to a perfect homecoming. Alumni enjoyed renewing old friendships and recalling memories of past homecomings. Students stored away treasured memories of beautiful weather, a spirited pep fest, a thrilling victory, and the coronation of a lovely queen.

The awaited moment arrives as Linnea Jensen, 1961 Homecoming Queen, crowns the new queen, Marjorie Langer.

The royal court is in full bloom for a royal portrait; Queen Marjorie and her attendants, Judy Shortridge, Marcia Martinson, Patty Anderson, Joyce Trask, Ilse Lackner, and Mary Cockrell.

Juniors Play Their Part

"Willie's Weekend," the Junior Class Play, was presented November 15 in afternoon and evening performances. Leading roles were played by Jean Brittany, as Mrs. Winkle, and Bill McDonald, as Willie Winkle. Mary Schaefer, Barb Peterson, and Kay Kunde portrayed three nurses. Carla Anderson played the part of Hannah Mulligan, Willie's special nurse. Three patients were played by Jon Murrow, Raye Farrar, and Bernard Henderson. Georgia Benson portrayed Mrs. Wood, the mother of one of the nurses. Janie Lou Higgins, the maid, was played by Sue Garrard. The proprietress of the nursing home was Kathi Falkenhagen. Tom Fitzsimmons and Duane Peterson portrayed two orderlies. Mr. Vernon Skogen directed the play and was assisted by Student Director, Robin Thompson.

The setting of the three-act comedy is the Bide Awee Nursing Home. Mrs. Winkle, an overprotective mother, leaves her precious twenty-two year old son Willie at the rest home to recover from his "Acute illness" which actually is nonexistent. Mrs. Winkle becomes terribly disturbed when she discovers her son's interest in Eva Wood, one of the attractive nurses at Bide Awee. Two of the patients of Bide Awee, Mr. Posey and Mr. Sanders, think they are Napoleon and Captain Kidd, which causes much excitement and trouble. Mrs. Winkle, a widow, becomes interested in a dignified male patient, Mr. Hodges, who tells her he is merely getting a rest from his tremendous business. Continually disturbed over the strange events that occur during Willie's stay, Mrs. Winkle is particularly dismayed when she finds out that Mr. Hodges is also mentally deranged and thinks he is John D. Rockefeller. The play ends happily, however, with the marriage of Willie and Eva Wood.

Play Director, Vernon Skogen, and Robin Thompson, (center) give stage directions to members of the cast, Tom Fitzsimmons and Sue Garrard.

To the surprise of Mrs. Winkle and Willie, "Captain Kidd" attacks Mulligan, Willie's nurse.

Seniors Present, "I Remember Mama"

"I Remember Mama," the 1962 Senior Class Play, was presented on May 8.

The cast of the two-act comedy was guided throughout production by director, Mr. Del Notwatzki, and student director, Larry Anderson.

The play concerned a Norwegian family of modest means. It began with Katrin, the oldest daughter, played by Nikki Smith, reading from a book she had written, and recalling family life. Numerous events were covered in the play, including family illness, graduation problems, marriage, and death.

Mama, a generous, warm-hearted person, was played by Marie Theisen. Bob Spilman portrayed Papa, always ready to help his family. Kristine, played by Polly Ramp, was also willing to help. Nels, the only son in the family, was played by Harold Huff. Ginny Crandall played the part of Dagmar, youngest member of the family. Aunt Jenny and Aunt Sigrid, played by Mary Cockrell and Harriet Dubbs, made all family affairs their business. Mike Brandt portrayed Uncle Chris, black sheep of the family. Marcia Martinson portrayed Uncle Chris's companion. Dee Jelacie played the part of Florence Dana Moorhead, a famous author who helped Katrin develop her writing abilities. Trina, a young aunt, was played by Marjorie Langer. Terry McCollough played the part of Mr. Torkelson, who Trina marries. Ron Longtin portrayed a boarder at the family home.

Student director, Larry Anderson, and director, Mr. Notwatzki, gather props for the play.

Uncle Chris gives orders as the family prepares to take Dagmar to the hospital.

Reverend Hess, former Washington High Student, speaks at the banquet.

Christmas Banquet Promotes Holiday Spirit

"Christmas Chimes" was the theme of the annual Senior Christmas Banquet held December 20 in the high school cafeteria. This theme was carried out by using green and gold in the decorations and the programs.

The main centerpiece was made of gold-sprayed pine boughs arranged around a musical scale. Green and gold boughs around a musical note formed the table centerpieces. Two large bells and the theme in large letters decorated the back wall.

A group of junior girls served the delicious turkey dinner with all the trimmings which had been prepared by the cooks and the senior mothers.

Wayne Haaland, the class president, was master of ceremonies. Rev. Ron Hess, a former W.H.S. student, spoke on our high school years and gave a Christmas message. Ron Longtin read the Christmas story according to St. Luke and St. Matthew.

A combo composed of Dawn Hill, piano; Louise Kisse and Roger Gorman, saxophones; and Ray Gildow on the drums played "Blue Moon," "Night Train," and "Misty."

Senior members of the a cappella choir, under the direction of Mr. Curtis Hansen, sang three Christmas songs.

The banquet ended with a caroling session under Mr. Hansen's direction.

Senior class members talk quietly over dinner.

An instrumental group from the band entertain for the seniors and guests.

Senior Tea

Promotes Friendship

A beautiful spring day provided proper atmosphere for the annual senior tea, held on May 15. Much preparation and planning went into the tea. Junior hostesses and servers were chosen and instructed in their duties, and junior mothers were called upon to prepare refreshments for the event.

Violet and pearl was the color scheme decorating the tea table, accented with a centerpiece of chrysanthemums, the class flower.

As the honored guests arrived, Paul Akre furnished the background music on the piano. Kristi Anderson, junior class president, acted as mistress of ceremonies for the program. Barbara Peterson, accompanied by Karen Aase, entertained the group with a clarinet solo. A girls' triple trio, composed of Susan Peterson, Judy Rice, Jeannie Brehmer, Sheri Christiansen, and Jeanne Frederick, sang a couple of numbers. Kay McCleod accompanied the trio. Bruce Tollefson entertained with a vocal solo. A humorous reading was given by Carla Andersen.

After the program, seniors and their mothers followed the junior hostesses through the tea line. Acting as hostesses were Georgia Benson, Jean Brittany, Mardee Fieldman, Kay Kunde, Kathy Houle, and Pam Sundberg.

Miss Ann Povaiba was the general chairman of the event and was assisted by junior mothers.

Decorative tea tables look inviting to the guests.

Carla Anderson entertains the guests with a humorous reading.

Seniors and their mothers enjoy listening to the afternoon's program.

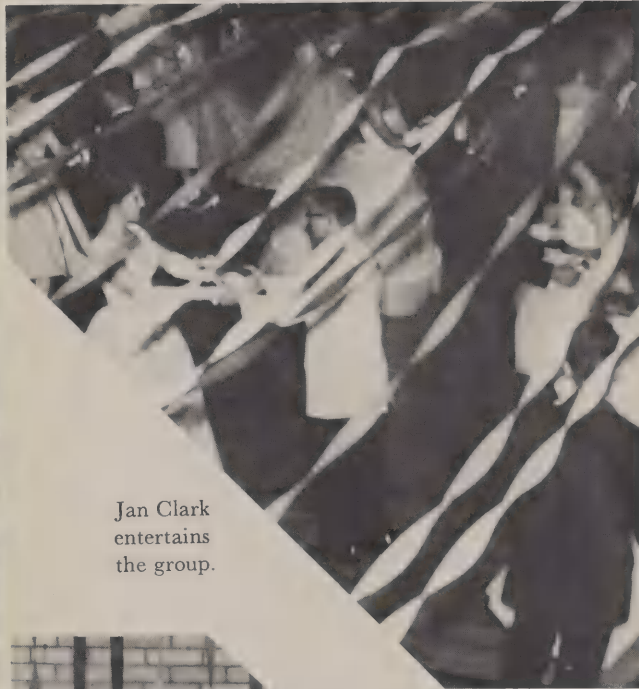

The guests proceed through the tea line, finding it hard to decide among the many delicious refreshments.

"Rustle of Spring" Thrills

The "Night Owls" from Little Falls provide music for dancing.

Jan Clark entertains the group.

Lovely decorations provide a picturesque background for the dancers.

Couples realize that their big evening has finally arrived as they dance on the gym floor.

Lovely dresses, balmy weather, beautiful decorations, and enjoyable music all high-lighted the 1962 Junior-Senior Prom. "Rustle of Spring," the prom theme, was carried out through the decorations and music. The prom was held on May 4 in the gym which was decorated by the juniors.

Beginning the night's activities was the Grand March. Kristi Anderson, president of the junior class, and Wayne Haaland, senior class president, led the march. The promenade gave spectators the chance to view the lovely dresses and handsome suits of the couples.

Following the Grand March was the program. Kristi Anderson served as mistress of ceremonies and introduced the performers. John Erickson entertaind the couples with a piano solo, "Rustle of Spring," theme song of the evening. Trudy Enlund played a flute solo, "The Whistler and His Dog." Jan Clark entertained the group by singing, "The Nearness of You."

After the program the couples enjoyed dancing to the music of the "Night Owls" from Little Falls. The group were aided throughout the evening by sophomore servers.

Serving as chaperones for the dance were Mr. and Mrs. James Mark, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Engebretson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hautala, and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Schaefer.

After much dancing and fun, students concluded their night with memories of dreamy music, enjoyable program, and lovely flowers, which molded a truly wonderful evening.

Couples take time out from their dancing to relax and talk awhile.

"I Would Rather Have Honor Than Honors!"

Fourteen students were named as the 1962 Honor Graduates of Distinction, and twenty-one others were named as Honor Graduates.

Those students maintaining a "B" average or better throughout their three years of high school were the Honor Graduates. Honor Graduates were recognized for their hard work and achievement throughout their high school careers.

Students ranking in the top four per cent of the senior class were named as Honor Graduates of Distinction. This is the third year the school has named Honor Graduates of Distinction instead of a valedictorian and a salutatorian. Recognized for their superior ability and a scholastic achievement, these students had the responsibility of planning the graduation exercises.

National Honor Society Recognizes Achievement

For the first time this year, the National Honor Society was organized as an active body in WHS. Forty seniors and sixteen juniors were chosen for membership. The students were selected from the top one-third of the class on the basis of scholarship, character, leadership, and service.

Elected as officers for the group were Bob Rofidal, president; Terry McCollough, vice-president; Mary Cockrell, secretary; and John Faust, treasurer.

The society held an initiation banquet at the Country Club on May 15. Senior members of the group were honored at a banquet given by the student council on May 17. The seniors were also honored by the Rotary Club at a banquet on May 23.

Mr. Delmar Smith and Mr. Randall McCune served as advisors for the group.

Students Gain Recognition for Curricular Achievement

Outstanding WHS students were honored during an auditorium program, May 17. Scholastic achievement and school leadership were the most important criteria for giving awards.

Mr. Adamson began the program by complimenting the honor graduates and then presenting them their awards. Next the honor graduates of distinction, holding the highest scholastic honor possible, were presented with their gold ropes for graduation.

Mr. McCune then explained the meaning of the National Honor Society and presented the senior and junior members with a certificate.

The American Legion Citizenship awards were presented to Jim Ebert and Nikki Smith. The Legion presented Terry Peterson a $100 scholarship to attend the Brainerd Junior College. Mr. Salmela, representing the Brainerd Federation of Teachers also presented Terry a $100 scholarship. Mike Engelhart and Barb Sather were recognized for being the 1962 Boy and Girl Stater sponsored by the Legion.

Mary Cockrell was presented the Daughters of the Revolution Good Citizenship Award by Mr. Smith. Mary Cockrell and John Erickson received the Josten Award for general good citizenship.

The awards presented in book form by the Danforth Foundation for leadership, were received by Dee Jelacie and Bob Rofidal.

Miss Hippe congratulated juniors Karen Aase, Pam Braverman, and Larry Albers for achieving nominations for a possible English scholarship.

Mr. Kramer presented Wollt with the Bausch-Lomb Award for outstanding work in the field of science.

Elks Scholarships were awarded to John Bedard, Mary Cockrell, and Jim Ebert for scholarship and leadership.

The National Merit Awards of Commendation were earned by John Bedard, Jim Ebert, Loren Gray, Kris Hohman, Gaylen Meyer, and Ruth Scrimshaw. Certificates of Merit were awarded to John Erickson and Richard Wollt for placing in the top one percent of the students taking the nation-wide Merit Scholarship Test.

John Bedard, Mary Cockrell, Kris Hohman, Karen Hautala, John Erickson, and Allen Craves were recognized for receiving scholarships from their chosen colleges. Helen Rivers received a scholarship from the St. Joseph's Hospital Auxiliary to aid her in a career in nursing. Joyce Trask and Gaylen Meyer each received a $150 scholarship from the Nisswa PTA.

Finishing the program, Mr. Smith presented two new Washington High School scholarships to Karen Hautala and Loren Gray.

Representing the award winners, Terry Peterson is congratulated by Mr. Smith.

"We Shall Be What We Make Ourselves"

Baccalaureate services for the graduating seniors were held on May 27 in the gymnasium.

The band played "War March of the Priests," by Mendelssohn, as the seniors marched in. The invocation was given by the Reverend B. C. Siewert. The Reverend Kermit Graves gave the sermon. The Reverend O. L. Summers gave a scripture reading. The benediction was given by the Reverend Dallas Young.

As a solo, the band played "Song of Jupiter," by Handel. The a cappella choir sang "Adoramus Te," by Mozart, and "Beautiful Savior," by Christiansen, with an alto solo by Virginia Crandall.

Seniors marched out to the recessional, "March Pontificale," by Gounod.

Three hundred and two seniors marched in to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" and awaited the beginning of the commencement exercises on May 31. Seniors were aware that their big moment had finally come — the climax of twelve years of education.

Following the processional by the band, the Reverend J. Wesley Johnston gave the invocation.

Speakers for the evening were four of the honor graduates of distinction. Kris Hohman spoke on "Memories." John Bedard presented "Economic Challenge." A speech on "Social Development" was delivered by Mary Cockrell. John Erickson spoke on "Qualities." Loren Gray acted as master of ceremonies.

The band entertained the seniors and audience with "Pathetique Symphony" by Tchaikovsky. The a cappella choir sang "Jesu Priceless Treasure," by Bach, and "Spring" by Grieg. The choir also sang the traditional "Halls of Ivy."

Receiving their diplomas was the highlight of the evening for the seniors. Principal D. C. Adamson presented the seniors. Mr. D. A. Erickson, president of the school board, and Superintendent J. A. Sater, granted the diplomas.

To the strains of "Ceremony at Margate," the seniors marched out of the gymnasium, diplomas in hand. Mixed emotions were experienced by most seniors as they realized that they would never again return to the school as students. Happiness because they were through was mixed with a little sadness as they realized that for them high school days had ended.

Silent now in the hall that only recently resounded with their voices the seniors await the awarding of diplomas.

Bob Rofidal faces the mad rush as graduating seniors receive their caps and gowns.

Making up the cast of the Thespian Play were, BACK ROW: M. Garvey, B. Rasch, R. Erickson, G. Larson. FRONT ROW: J. Rice, B. DeRosier, M. Gavin, L. Kisse, D. Kramer.

Wayne Haaland, Pam Braverman, and Carla Anderson, made up the cast of the Contest Play.

One Act Plays Develop Dramatic Skills

Included in the cast of the Foreign Student Play were, BACK ROW: W. Swart, R. Halverson, M. Brandt, R. Spilman, J. Conway, R. Farrar, D. Peterson, M. Volkl. FRONT ROW: K. Anderson, D. Jelacie, J. Ackerson, C. Anderson, J. Lively, G. Benson, P. Braverman.

Dramatic productions at WHS included three one-act plays presented to the student body during the school year. These plays provided entertainment for the student body and valuable dramatic experience for the participants.

On February 8, the Foreign Student Play, "How to Propose," was presented. This humorous play concerned the ways man has proposed through the ages. The play traced methods of proposal from the days of the caveman to the present.

The Thespian Play, "Sitters in Revolt," was staged on January 27. With a sophomore cast, this play concerned a group of babysitters who staged a strike for higher wages.

"Suppressed Desires," the play staged for the district contest, was presented to the student body on March 1. The field of psychiatry was the target of this satiric play.

SENIORS

Seniors Prepare for the Future

Realizing that this was their final year, seniors strove to make it their best. Senior class members conducted many activities and found themselves very busy throughout the year.

Elected to lead the class were, Wayne Haaland, president; Steve Esser, vice president; Judy Shortridge, secretary; and Virginia Crandall, treasurer. Marcia Martinson was chosen to represent the class on the student council. In each of the senior English classes one student was elected to serve on the class cabinet. The officers and cabinet had charge of many class activities.

Ordering calling cards, measuring for caps and gowns, ordering graduation announcements and planning the Christmas Banquet were some of the activities supervised by the cabinet.

Seniors held their annual Christmas Banquet in December. "Christmas Chimes" the banquet theme, was carried out through music and decorations. The Senior Class Play, "I Remember Mama," was presented on May 8. As a memorial to the school, the class bought a movie screen for the auditorium.

The Violet Chrysanthemum was chosen as the class flower. Seniors chose violet and pearl as their class colors. "We shall be what we make ourselves," was selected as the senior class motto. With this thought in mind, the seniors looked fondly back on their high school years and forward to the future.

JUNIO RS

Although the Junior Class had the smallest enrollment of the three classes, they took part in many activities during the school year.

The class, led by Kris Anderson, president; Sherry Cain, vice-president; Kathy Houle, secretary; and Karen St. Marie, treasurer, directed their activities at meetings open to all members.

Sponsoring a refreshment booth at the Foreign Student Carnival was one of their first projects. The class chose Linda Hautala and John Ebinger as their candidates for carnival king and queen.

"Willie's Weekend," a rollicking comedy, was selected as the Junior Class Play. Members of the class worked hard on all phases of the play which proved very successful.

One of the biggest projects was the planning and producing of the Junior-Senior Prom. After selecting the theme, class members worked diligently to carry it out through the decorations and programs.

Class members were aided in their various activities by their advisers, Mr. Walter Engbretson and Mr. James Mark.

Advisers Mr. James Mark and Mr. Walter Engbretson discuss some junior class business.

Junior class officers are Kristi Anderson, SITTING; Sherry Cain, Karen St. Marie, and Kathy Houle, STANDING.

Junior class cabinet members are, BACK ROW: J. Ebinger, G. Brumberg, R. Farrar, J. Menz, M. Engelhart, M. Nagel. MIDDLE ROW: K. Anderson, K. Kunde, L. Pom-

Sophomores Share New Experiences

New teachers and new surroundings greeted the sophomores as they began their first year at WHS. As the youngest members of the student body, sophomores found that there were many adjustments to be made. Students soon were orientated, becoming an essential part of the school.

One of the first activities of the class was to elect their officers, Jim Keprios was elected president; Andy Kokesh, vice-president; Jeri Fredricks, secretary; and Connie Isle, treasurer. Sophomores elected Gayle Holst as their representative to the Student Council.

Raising money for the class treasury was another activity of the class. Sophomores decided to sell hot potatoes at football games in the fall. This ingenious idea was very successful and was a big boost for the treasury. Another money maker was a candy sale held during the noon hour.

Sponsoring of "Twirp Week" in February was one of the main activities of the class. During "Twirp Week," the girls were required to perform many of the boy's duties. Girls opened doors for the boys, carried their books, and took the initiative in dating activities. Highlight of the week was the Twirp Dance conducted by the sophomore class.

Guiding the class in its many activities were their advisers, Miss Wilda Miller and Miss Joyce Hippe.

Class officers: Connie Isle, Jim Keprios, Jeri Fredricks, and Andy Kokesh, guide the class in its many activities.

Miss Hippe and Miss Miller, class advisers, look for a solution to a class problem.

SPORTS

Warriors Showed Strength,

The Brainerd Warriors finished their season with a record of five wins and four losses. Because the pre-season write-ups had indicated that the Warriors would be a hard team to beat, the losing of Brainerd's first four games was completely unexpected. Then the Warriors mustered their predicted strength to win the last five games and place second in the conference. Four Brainerd players, Dale Brown, Bob Rofidal, Terry Holm, and Terry Peterson, were selected for the All-Conference team. Dale Brown was also named to two All-State football teams this season; as defensive linebacker on the Minneapolis Sunday Tribune team and as defensive guard on the WCCO team. Also receiving honorable mention on the Tribune squad were guard Terry Holm, center Terry Peterson, and halfback Bob Rofidal. Head coach Richard Lagergren and assistant Paul Vrudny guided the Warriors this year.

The football coaches: Dick Lagergren, Jack Whiting, Paul Vrudny, and Gene Hanson.

Brainerd vs. Coleraine, September 1

Greenway of Coleraine shocked the Brainerd Warriors with long passes in the last three minutes of play to defeat the Warriors, 20—14. The two Warrior T. D.'s came in the first half on a short run by Dale Brown and a pass to John Faust.

Brainerd vs. Duluth Central, September 8

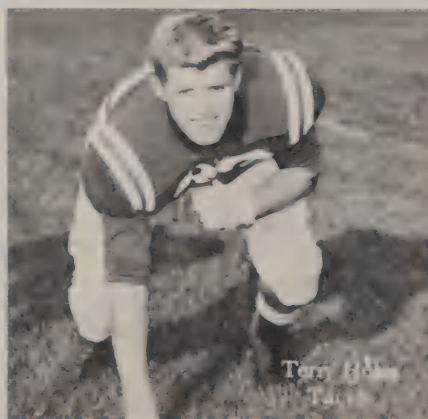

The Warriors bowed to Duluth Central, 13—9, receiving their second straight home loss. The Warriors gained the lead on a safety as the Trojans recovered a blocked punt in their own end zone. This advantage was short-lived, however, as Duluth fullback, Chet Anderson, reeled off two T. D.'s.

Brainerd vs. St. Cloud Cathedral, September 15

Cathedral's Crusaders handed the Warriors their third straight loss, 13—7. Taking the opening kickoff, Brainerd marched 85 yards in a sustained drive to score their only T. D. Many costly errors prevented further scoring.

Brainerd vs. St. Cloud Tech, September 22

The Warriors suffered their fourth defeat at St. Cloud, 19—6. Russ Akre sprinted 26 yards for the Warriors only score.

Brainerd vs. Staples, September 29

The Warriors snapped their four-game losing streak as they rolled over Staples, 28—7, at the Cardinal's homecoming. Bob Rofidal and Dale Brown broke the game wide open with two T. D.'s apiece as Brown executed runs of 59 yards and Rofidal scored on 14 and 12 yard runs.

Brainerd vs. Little Falls, October 6

Brainerd's homecoming slogan, "Roll Over the Falls," came true as the Warriors defeated Little Falls, 19—14. Dale Brown scored on runs of 5 and 69 yards and returned a fourth quarter punt 80 yards to win the game.

Brainerd vs. Aitkin, October 13

The Warriors swamped Aitkin, 40—26, for their third victory. Bob Rofidal broke loose for three T. D.'s one a 59 yarder off-tackle, and plunged for two extra points. Dale Brown scored twice and added two extra points. John Faust scampered 25 yards off-guard for the other touchdown.

Brainerd vs. Crosby-Ironton

October 18

The Warriors smothered an inexperienced C-I team with 20 points in the first quarter to regain the "Little Brown Jug" from C-I, 34—25. Bob Rofidal scored on runs of 25 and 14 yards, and lofted a 37-yard touchdown pass to Jim Zech. Dale Brown also scored two touchdowns on runs of 27 and 21 yards.

Brainerd vs. Bemidji

October 27

A spirited Warrior team defeated the highly-rated Bemidji Lumberjacks in the last game of the season. Senior Dale Brown and junior John Ebinger accounted for all the Brainerd points. Brown scored three times and Ebinger, once.

The Future Varsity

The B's showed plenty of scrap and spirit as they chalked up wins over Little Falls and Crosby-Ironton while losing to St. Cloud Tech and St. Cloud Cathedral.

The B-squad paralleled the example set by the Warrior A-squad in losing the first half of the season and winning the last half, and compiling a 2—2 record.

With the combined efforts of coaches Gene Hanson and Jack Whiting, the B-squad afforded its 27 sophomores and juniors the experience they will need in years to come.

Grapplers Gain Momentum

The Warrior grapplers had a very successful season under coaches, Merv Jensen and Bill Matthies. They ended their regular season with a record of ten wins and two losses, which placed them first in the Central Six Conference. Jim Borg and Tim Parker came through the regional on February 24 at Alexandria, and qualified for the state tournament March 2-3 at St. Peter where Jim took third place in the wrestling tournament. The squad displayed superb sportsmanship and unquenchable team desire throughout the season.

Kellettmen Set Scoring Record

In scoring 1,441 points, the 1961-62 Washington High School Warriors became the highest scoring team in Fred Kellett's 14 year reign here. The Warriors averaged 80 points per game, compared to 59.6 for the combined opposition. This year's Warriors quint placed all five starters in double figure averaged, another first here, as Dale Brown set a 17.4 pace and was followed by Bill Laumann's 16.4, Gerry Blank's 11.4, Bob Rofidal's 10.6, and Russ Akre's 10.3. This quintet accounted for 66 of Brainerd's 80 points per game average. The squad also reached the 1954 mark of 109 points scored by the state championship outfit. The record-tying performance came on a 109-56 win over Staples, here, on February 2, a game in which Brainerd reserves scored 46 points for what is believed to be a state record. Tremendous speed and shooting ability, coupled with fine rebounding, long passing, a devastating pressing defense, and exceptional teamwork were hallmarks of the team all season. The combination was enough to keep Brainerd rated at the top of the St. Paul Pioneer Press high school basketball poll since it was started in January. Individually, Dale Brown set a record December 28 at Granite Falls as he scored 41 points. Less than a month later, January 14, Bill Laumann nearly equalled Brown's mark with 39 points in the 88-51 rout of Crosby-Ironton to place second in District 24.

Brainerd vs. Crosby-Ironton, Dec. 1

In the first game of the season the Warriors were completely outclassed by a red hot C.I. quint at Crosby, 65—47. Dale Brown hit 13 field goals and wound up with 28 points, dominating Warrior scoring.

Brainerd vs. Aitkin, Dec. 8

The Warriors, led by Terry Peterson's 22 points, clubbed the Aitkin Gobblers 81—43. Aitkin was thoroughly outclassed by the host Warriors in this contest.

Brainerd vs. Staples, Dec. 15

The Staples Cardinals became the second conference foe to fall in defeat at the hands of the Warriors, as they were walloped 76—37, at Staples. Gerry Blank's 20 points led the way in a game which saw the reserves getting most of the action in the second half.

Brainerd vs. Little Falls, Dec. 22

A hot Warrior team chalked up their third straight victory at the expense of the visiting Little Falls Flyers, 74—51. Coach Kellett inserted his reserves freely while all five starters hit double figures.

Brainerd vs. Granite Falls, Dec. 28

Dale Brown broke the school scoring record for most points scored in a single game, with 41 points, as the Warriors crushed Granite Falls, 99—51. Again, balanced scoring keynoted the game.

Brainerd vs. Willmar, Dec. 29

Dale Brown and Bill Laumann combed the nets for 30 and 20 points respectively, against Willmar in a 74—57 decision. This night's effort gave Brown 71 points for the two-day vacation road trip.

Brainerd vs. St. Cloud, Jan. 12

Invading St. Cloud Tech bowed to the Warriors, 73—63, in a game that saw four starters in double figures again. Bob Rofidal led the way with 20 points.

Brainerd vs. Grand Rapids, January 13

The Kellettmen upset the number two ranked team in the state, Grand Rapids, 74—64. Balanced scoring again say Akre with 16, Brown with 15, and Blank with 14, against a highly regarded pressing team.

Brainerd vs. Wadena, January 15

The Warriors fast break was instrumental in topping their host, highly ranked Wadena, 80—51. Brainerd's balanced scoring attack was led by Bill Laumann with 21 points.

Brainerd vs. Crosby, January 19

The Crosby-Ironton Rangers were crushed 88—51 by the red hot Warriors. Bill Laumann's tremendous 75% shooting for 34 points made an all time scoring record for a single game on Brainerd's floor.

Brainerd vs. Aitkin, January 26

The Warriors were victorious again when they downed the Aitkin Gobblers 66—43. The second string saw most of the action in the second half.

Brainerd vs. Two Harbors, January 27

With tremendous ball handling and defense, the Warriors captured their 12th victory in a row, 87—44. Four out of the five starters hit double figures.

Brainerd vs. Staples, February 2

The Brainerd Warriors tied their eight year old single game record of 104 points by clobbering the Staples Cardinals 109—59 as all five starters hit double figures. Bill Laumann almost tied Dale Brown's previous record with 39 points.

Brainerd vs. Little Falls, February 9

The Little Falls Flyers became victims number 13 as the Warriors slipped by them 86—65 on the Flyers new floor. Again Dale Brown led the way with 24 points.

Brainerd vs. Wadena, February 13

The Kellettmen thumped the invading Wadena Indians 94—75, as Dale Brown hit 21 points, followed by Bob Rofidal's 19.

Brainerd vs. St. Cloud, February 16

The Warriors won their sixth conference contest in a row over the Tech Tigers at St. Cloud 70—57. Bill Laumann's long range gunning for 22 points was the top effort for the evening with Dale Brown close behind with 18 points.

Brainerd vs. Cloquet, February 23

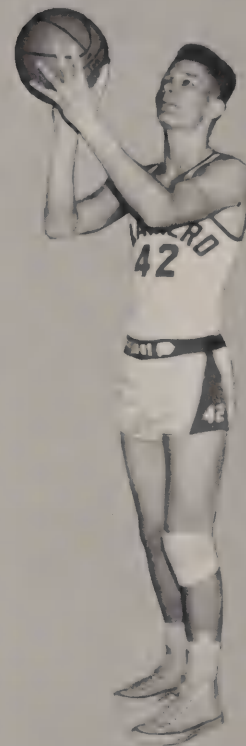

Cloquet's highly regarded Lumberjacks were beaten 86—65 as Brainerd's backcourt once again took over in the second half by outrunning two sets of Cloquet's speedsters and ringing up 30 points, most coming from the fast-break.

Brainerd vs. Sauk Centre, February 27

The Warriors finished their regular season schedule with a 74—52 victory over the tall Sauk Centre Mainstreeters. All five starters hit double figures, led by Jerry Blanck with 21.

District 24 Tournament

The Warriors won their first two games of the tournament, defeating Staples in the first round, 82—49, and an unbeaten Sebeka quint 74—56. The Warriors bowed to a highly inspired CI team in the championship game, 72—66.

T. Peterson

"B" Squad Boasts Added Height

Under the guidance of coach Bob Miller, the Brainerd B squad got off to a good start by winning six games in a row, but dropped into a slump for the rest of the season. After they fell in defeat to Wadena, they couldn't get back on their feet again, and won only two out of the remaining eight games. This squad was one of the tallest that Brainerd has ever had and will add valuable height to next year's A squad.

Intramurals Provide Sportsmanship

Intramurals, meeting for the mere sake of the game, improved sportsmanship and allowed boys who were interested in basketball to play games in competition.

This year the Intramural Basketball League was topped by Tom Weinhandl's quint. In the championship game on February 26, Weinhandl's team walked over Gene Anderson's five, 65—43.

Lettermen Promote Athletics

The purpose of the Lettermen's Club was to promote a better interest in athletics at WHS and to better off-field relations among boys.

The annual Lettermen's Club and Coaches Banquet was held in the fall at the school cafeteria. Turkey and trimmings were served. In the spring club members enjoyed a steak dinner at the Land O' Lakes Cafe.

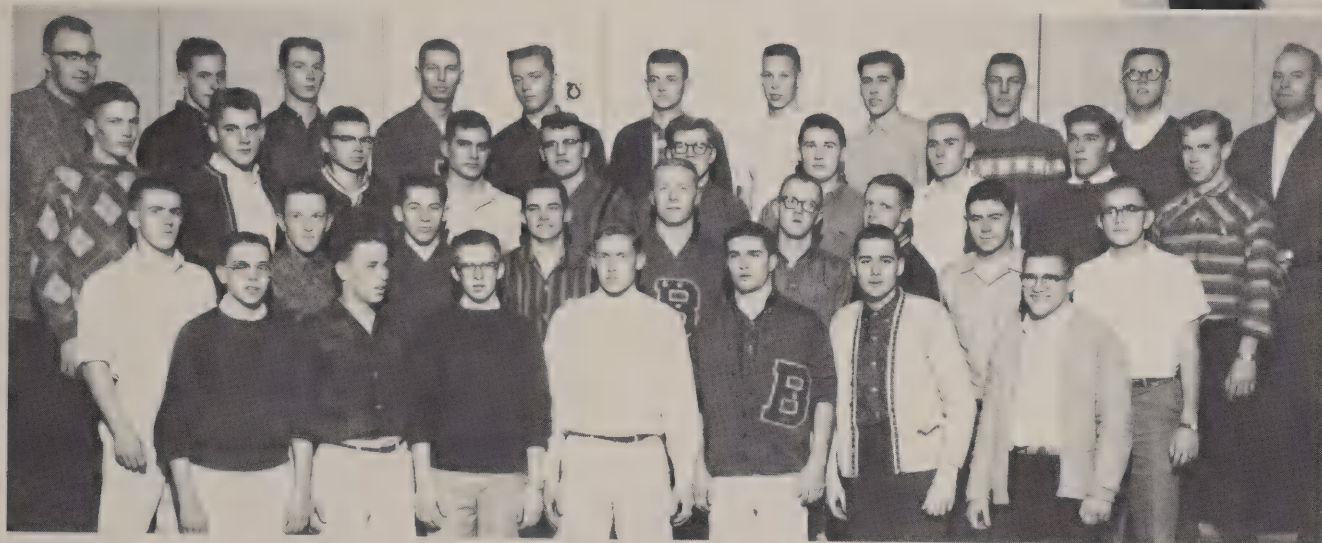

Six wrestlers were sent by the Lettermen's Club to the state wrestling tournaments in Minneapolis. The club also made it possible for the senior members of the basketball team to go to the state basketball tournament in Minneapolis.

Chief money-maker for the Lettermen was selling popcorn and pop at basketball and football games.

With some of their money the club made it possible for two grade school students to attend Legionville in the summer. The club also bought a piece of therapy equipment for the physical education department.

Mr. Richard Lagergren and Mr. Fred Kellett served as advisors for the group.

Aasemen Support Winning Season

Under the capable coaching of Kermit Aase and Fred Kellett the Warrior team completed a successful season with a 6—2 record. Highlighting the 1962 season were the no hit game pitched by Dale Brown against high-ranking Little Falls and Bob Rofidal's homeruns in both the Crosby-Ironton and Aitkin games. The only two defeats of the regular season were one point losses to Staples and Little Falls. In their first District Tournament play at Staples on May 28, the Warriors were eliminated by Little Falls, 6—5.

Track Was a Good Activity to Make Friends

The Warrior track prospects looked good this year because of a fine turnout of boys. Among them were only eight returning lettermen. John Faust, Ron Longtin, and Mike Wise were the veteran dashmen. Sophomore sprinters were Jon Echternacht and Ron Erickson, while Herb Kretzman and John Runberg were the veteran distance men. Terry Holm was the lone Warrior with any experience in the pole vault.

The first competition for the cindermen was at Staples April 19 in a quadrangular meet with Aitkan, Wadena, and Staples.

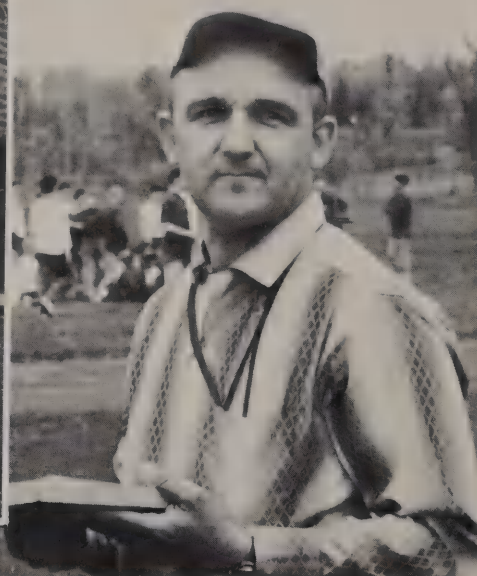

The cindermen were coached this year by Paul Vrudney who was assisted by Dick Lagergren.

Linksmen Join New Conference

The golf team under the direction of coach Wally Engebretson, with one returning letterman, started out in fine style by winning the first two of its four conference matches. Members of the new golf conference were Brainerd, Little Falls, Staples, Wadena, Aitkin, and Crosby-Ironton. In the first conference match at Wadena, Brainerd edged out second place Little Falls 22—21. Skeeto Peterson and Mike Brandt each carded a 41, while Terry McCollough shot a 45 and Butch Dybvik and Tom Fitzsimmons each 46. In the second conference match at Little Falls, the linksmen again downed second place Little Falls 24—20½ on the Flyers home course. The Warrior golfers competed in the District 24 tournament at Little Falls on May 19 and in the Region 6 tournament at Detroit Lakes on May 26.

Brainonian Records Memories

To provide an accurate and vivid record of the school year was the goal of the Brainonian staff. The staff members worked diligently throughout the year to meet their deadlines and produce a book of top quality.

The editorial staff, advised by Mr. Edward Fox, began early in the year to record the year's activities. Terry McCollough, editor-in-chief, set up the deadlines and saw to it that they were met. He also guided and aided the staff in many ways.

Six individual staffs made up the editorial staff. The layout staff, headed by Loren Gray, arranged the pictures and copy on the pages to make them interesting and attractive. The picture staff, under Judy Shortridge, scheduled and arranged the taking of pictures for the book. Led by Dallas McCauly, the photography staff took, developed, and printed all the pictures. The copy staff, headed by Carolyn Kellett, performed the task of composing write-ups, picture captions, and headlines.

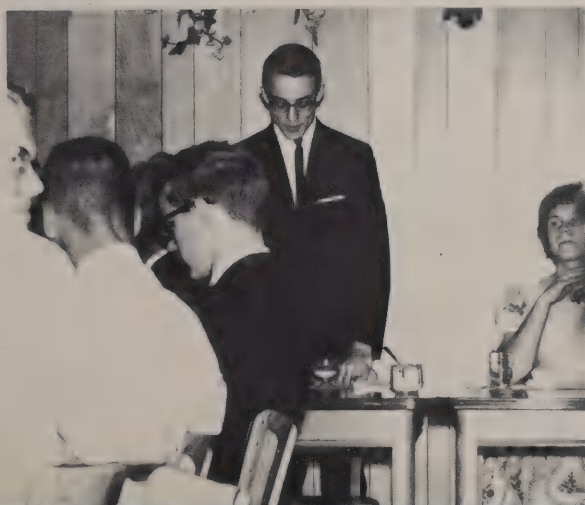

Taking complete charge of the sports pages was the job of the sports staff, under Dewayne Jordan. Joyce Trask headed the index staff, which arranged and compiled the student index.

The business staff, advised by Miss IrmaDell Adams, performed vital duties in tending the financial aspects of the yearbook. Selling yearbooks to the students and soliciting donations from business establishments were some of their duties.

Brainonian staff members enjoyed many activities throughout the year. Senior staff members journeyed to St. Cloud to attend a fall yearbook conference at St. Cloud State College. In the spring, junior staff members had the opportunity of spending two days in the Twin Cities and attending a convention at the University of Minnesota. The staff held a Christmas party during vacation and a picnic and banquet in the spring.

Completion of their last deadline marked the end of a busy and enjoyable year for the Brainonian staff.

Choir Creates Harmony

"If your own performance of a job looks perfect to you, it isn't because you have done a perfect job, it is only because you have imperfect standards." This proverb, which was posted on the wall in the choir room, served as a guide for the choirs throughout the year. Under director Curtis Hansen, the choirs worked diligently to attain the best in choral music.

Elected as officers for the choir were James Peterson, president; Carlos Workman, vice-president; and Virginia Crandall, secretary-treasurer.

During the year the choirs were very active. The A Cappella choir sang its first concert for the open house in the fall. In December, the choir journeyed to Duluth to present a Christmas concert over KDAL T.V. There the choir had its first opportunity to work under the professional supervision of the Duluth cameramen and program directors.

The A Cappella choir had many other opportunities to perform during the Christmas season. The choir sang for various civic organizations including the Baxter PTA, the Rotary Club, and the Kiwanis Club. A concert was also presented at the First Federal Savings and Loan and recorded over KLIZ, the local radio station. The glee club, choral club, and A Cappella choir joined to present their annual Christmas concert at the high school. The theme of the concert was, "Now sing we all rejoice," which was carried out musically by the choirs and artistically by the art department.

A choir reunion for all past members was held during Christmas vacation.

In January the A Cappella choir sang in Minneapolis for the Minnesota Music Educators Association. Members of the choir had the opportunity to sing under Mr. William Dawson, famous writer of Negro spirituals.

Highlighting the year for the A Cappella choir was their spring trip to South Dakota, Southern Minnesota and Iowa. The choir gave performances in St. Peter, Minnesota; Marshall, Minnesota; and Sioux Falls, South Dakota. Main event of the trip was participation on the music festival at Augustana College in Sioux Falls.

The choirs held their final concert on May 16, with Paul Christiansen as guest director. Singing at Baccalaureate and Commencement ended a profitable year for the A Cappella choir. Through participation in the choirs, students gained a greater appreciation of music and improved their vocal skills.

To Lead Is to Serve

As the governing body of the school, the student council had many important duties to perform. It promoted student interest, responsibility, and school pride. The main purpose was to promote the general welfare of the school through proper student-faculty relationships.

All school activities were under the jurisdiction of the student council. Rules for the dances, sponsored by different W.H.S. Clubs, were set up by the council as well as rules for candy and other sales.

The council sponsored homecoming, one of the major events. This year a new committee was set up to welcome the new students attending W.H.S. to help them get acquainted.

The student council chose to Save the Children's Clothing Drive as a main project this year. For a Christmas project it gave money to the Brainerd State School and Hospital. The student council also sponsored the variety show "Hearts in Harmony."

Officers of student council were president, Ron Longtin; vice-president, Bob Rofidal; secretary, Linda Hautala; and treasurer, Susie Anderson. The advisors of the organization were the guidance counselors, Mr. Randall McCune and Mr. Delmar Smith.

Members of student council, Kathy Kunkel, Linda Hautala, and Ron Longtin, were fortunate enough to attend the District and State Student Council Conventions. They all agreed that the talks given them were very inspiring.

At the end of the year the Council voted to donate a Hi-Fi to the school as a memorial.

Top Journalists Are Honored

For the first time this year a local chapter of Quill and Scroll society, the honorary society for high school journalists, was organized as an active body. Twenty-three Pow-Wow and Brainonian members were initiated on February 10 bringing the total membership to twenty-eight. Past members were the officers, John Bedard, president; Karen Hautala, vice-president, and Mary Cockrell, secretary-treasurer. Advised by Miss Irmadell Adams and Miss Kaye Torgerson, the group sold plastic yearbook covers as a money-maker. In the spring new members were inducted into the society.

Chemistry Club Promotes Science

A new club in W.H.S. this year was the Chemistry Club. Purpose of the club was to provide interested students the opportunity to pursue the science of Chemistry outside of the classroom. Meeting every two weeks, the club participated in lectures, movies, and laboratory experiments. Members also went on a tour of the Northwest Paper Company.

Elected as officers for the group were Jim Ebert, president; Mike Garvey, vice-president; and Tom Dahl, secretary.

Pow Wow Improves Journalistic Skills

"Busy as bees," is a comment that could well be heard referring to the Pow Wow staff. The main purpose was to keep the students of Washington High well-informed on news events taking place in the school. The Pow Wow promoted school morale and spirit and instilled enthusiasm all over WHS. Journalistic skills were etched into Pow Wow staff members as they proceeded from one journalistic rank to another. Working on the staff brought out such personality traits as leadership, responsibility, honesty, and loyalty to the school.

Under the able leadership of the editors-in chief, Karen Hautala and John Bedard, and advisor, Miss Kaye Torgerson, the Pow Wow had a very successful year. This year, for the second time in its history, the Pow Wow received a Medalist rating from Columbia Press Association at Columbia University.

The Pow Wow spear headed a drive to collect Christmas gifts for the State Hospital patients to brighten their Christmas. They had two splendid days for a car wash and bake sale in the spring which brought in money for expenses. A special literary edition was printed featuring character sketches of the honor graduates of distinction. The staff sponsored a "Hat Hop" dance at which prizes for the smallest, largest, and funniest hat were given.

Senior editors of the staff had the opportunity of attending the National Scholastic Press Association Conference in Chicago during Thanksgiving vacation. Junior editors attended the MHSPA convention in the spring.

An awards banquet was held at the Country Club in May for the staff members, thus ending a busy and successful year.

Staff members Annabelle Nelson, Sharon Bednarek, and Kay Kunde give instructions to typist, Jan Frankum.

They Promote Friendship Abroad

Ilsa Lackner, foreign student from Austria, participated in many activities during the school year.

Washington High School was fortunate to have a foreign student this year. Ilsa Lackner from St. Peter, Austria, became an active member of the Foreign Student Committee and helped them to make their projects a success.

New officers were elected at the beginning of the year. Steve Esser was chosen as new chairman; Joyce Trask, vice-chairman; Jean Brittany, secretary; and Mary Brower, treasurer. New members from each class were added.

In the fall the big project was the Carnival. Mike Volkl and Joni Gustafson as king and queen reigned over the carnival which was a tremendous success. Another fall activity was the selling of pencils printed with the football schedule.

Kristi Anderson, and Charles Cummins became the finalists for the American Field Service program to go abroad. They later were judged on a national basis.

For a Christmas project the committee held parties at two grade schools for the children in the special rooms. John Faust, acting as Santa, distributed gifts to the children. At the close of the parties, lunch was served.

In February, the F. S. play, "How to Propose," was presented to the student body. This farce showed the various ways man has proposed during the ages.

The annual F. S. Day was held in March. Students from abroad were given an opportunity to observe our schooling at Washington High. An open dance gave many the chance to meet the visiting students.

In the spring a tag day was held downtown with generous shoppers buying tags to help the committee raise money.

Miss Kaye Torgerson served as advisor.

Committee members and guests converse at the coke hour, a part of the annual Foreign Student Day attended by foreign students from all over the state.

Foreign Student Committee officers are Jean Brittany, Steve Esser, Joyce Trask, and Mary Brower.

Band Builds Musical Skills

Concerts, contests, athletic games, and parades were all a part of the band's busy schedule. Directed by Mr. D. C. Campbell, the band held daily practice sessions, preparing for their many performances and developing their musical skills.

Governing the band was the Band Council, consisting of four seniors, three juniors, and two sophomores. The council was led by Roger Gorman, president; Dave Erickson, vice-president; Trudy Enlund, treasurer; and Kathy Houle, secretary.

The band's big concert was held January 29 with Rafael Mendez, world-renowned trumpeter, as guest soloist and director. The band presented their Annual Winter Concert December 3. The band also participated in the All-City Music Concert on April 8. On May 21 the band held an outdoor concert in front of the First Federal Building.

Marching activities of the band included the homecoming parade, the Santa Claus parade in November, and the football games. At the end of the school year, the band marched in the Memorial Day parade and the Sixth District American Legion Parade.

The band participated in various contests during the year. At the District Band Festival held in Crosby, the band received an A-plus rating. Brainerd played host to the State-Regional Band Contest held in April. The band fared well in this contest also. Individually, members of the band participated in the District Solo and Ensemble Contest in Little Falls.

For their pleasure trip, the band went to the Ice Follies in Minneapolis and stayed overnight in the Twin Cities.

Band members concluded their busy year with the memories of fun-filled activities and a greater appreciation of music through the development of their skills in the musical field.

Displaying their exacting formation are the band's color guard; Carolyn Britton, Susan Erickson, Judy Marchel, Jean Gadway, and Shirley Yde.

Current Events Club Stimulates Interest in World Affairs

During the year the Current Events Club, under the advisership of Miss Mostrom, met every other Wednesday evening to discuss topics of current interest.

Each discussion was led by a different member. The members did research on the topics chosen in their spare time, so that the work involved did not interfere with school work.

The club was led by the following officers: President, Dave Erickson; Vice President, Steve Esser; Treasurer, Loren Gray; and Secretary, Ilse Lackner, our foreign student.

As in the past, the club held a pot luck supper at which Ilse Lackner, foreign student from Austria, showed films of her home-land.

The Current Events Club's main project was an auditorium program which the entire student body attended.

At the Foreign Student Carnival, the club sponsored a booth to raise funds to send a student abroad.

A picnic was held at the end of the year for members of the club.

Current Events Club excited interest in current topics of world affairs. It was hoped by the club members that each of them could become a better citizen because of an understanding gained through the Current Events Club.

Friendship prevails after the Current Events program presented to the student body. STANDING are Junior College Young Republican Leader, Dave Fisher, Steve Esser, program moderator, and Winston Bordon, leader of the Crow Wing County D.F.L. Young Peoples Group. SITTING are the panel members; Philip Houle, Dee Jelacie, John Bedard, Chris Hohman, and John Erickson.

Discussing club business are the Current Events officers: Steve Esser, Dave Erickson, Loren Gray, and Ilse Lackner.

Debaters Display Verbal Fluency

Debaters expressed their ability with words on many occasions throughout the year. From November to February the debaters traveled every weekend to participate in various debates.

Led by president, Nikki Smith; vice-president, Mary Cockrell; and secretary-treasurer, Cris Hohman, the debate team proved their skill at various tournaments. The team placed second in the Regional Debate Tournament. In the state-wide N.G.L. Tournament, Brainerd debaters placed third.

Closely affiliated with the National Forensic League, the debaters participated in many of its activities. At the N.F.L. Fall Congress held in Elbow Lake, Brainerd debater Nikki Smith was elected president.

To raise money, the group sold pom-poms during basketball season, and book covers at the beginning of the year.

The debaters held a picnic in the spring at which the awards and certificates were given.

Coached by Mr. Norman Arveson, the debaters concluded their year with knowledge and skill gained through debate.

Mr. Arveson gives Jean Gadway, Mary Cockrell, Cris Hohman, and Nikki Smith their topic for the invitational debate.

Education Is a Valuable Tool

The Future Teachers of America was organized with a specific purpose — to develop more interest among the students of Washington High School in teaching as a vocation.

With Mr. E. C. Herrmann as their advisor, the Future Teachers elected Sharon Bednarek, president; Janet Reier, vice-president; Annabelle Nelson, secretary; and Doralee Guin, treasurer.

The Future Teachers chose various projects to keep them busy throughout the year. As their Christmas project they bought gifts for a needy family in Brainerd.

During American Education Week, the Future Teachers were very busy holding parent-teacher conferences in the grade schools and taking over various classes. Rendering this service gave them valuable experience in actual teaching procedure. The Future Teachers also assisted the W.H.S. faculty during the week. They performed another service by ushering at open house.

Closing up the year in the spring, a tea was held for the W.H.S. teachers.

They Excel in the Field of Business

Composing the Future Business Leaders were the students taking part in the school's vocational training program. Students in this program attended school in the morning and in the afternoon worked at various business establishments in town. Members of the group thus gained skill in their future vocation as well as regular basic schooling. Participation in the Future Business Leaders organization provided enjoyment for these students as well as the opportunity to better improve their vocational skills.

In March, members of the group attended the State Convention held in Minneapolis at the Radisson Hotel. At the convention there were competitive events in different divisions such as advertising, layouts, window displays, sales management, and typing. This was a culminating activity to see how much they had learned and how successful they had been in the past year. The Brainerd group fared very well at the convention, receiving one first place, two second places, and two third places in various divisions. The club was fortunate to have Barb Porwall elected as state secretary.

In February the Future Business Leaders sponsored a Sweetheart Dance at which Jeri Fredricks was chosen Queen of Hearts.

Officers for the group were Keith Bowman, president; Roger Halverson, vice-president; Betty Robertson, treasurer; Barb Porwall, secretary; Mary Anderson, historian; and Bill Roscoe, parliamentarian.

Mr. Manley Madson served as advisor for the group.

Latin Club Increases Understanding

The Latin Club, composed of students taking second-year Latin, met every other week during the school year to promote better understanding of Latin.

National Latin Week was observed by the club in various ways. Around the halls club members hung posters written in Latin and also took part in the local competition in the translation of Latin.

In addition the Latin Club held a skating party during Christmas vacation.

Elected as officers for the group were, Jim Bedard, president; Sharon Johnson, vice-president; Beverly Brown, secretary; and Tyra Parsons, treasurer.

Miss Kaye Torgerson served as their adviser.

Singing German songs was enjoyed by German students throughout the year. Carla Anderson, Virginia Crandall, Sherri Christensen, Judy Ackerson, and Roberta Bourassa demonstrate their ability in this while entertaining at the German Club Pot-Luck supper.

German Club Promotes Culture

"Sprechen Sie Deutsche?" meaning, "Do you speak German?" is a question members of the German Club must be able to answer in the affirmative. Composed of students taking first or second year German, the German Club functions as an active organization aimed to further interest in the German language and culture.

This year, for the first time, the German Club organized cultural talks about Germany for regular class time to help advance the cultural knowledge of WHS German students. They also had the advantage of reading a variety of German magazines to which the German Club subscribed.

Chosen to lead the Club were Virginia Crandall, president; Butch Dybvik, vice-president; Kathy Kunkel, secretary; and Sherri Christensen, treasurer. Mr. E. C. Herrmann and Mr. Lowell Lee as advisers, guided the club in its many activities.

German Christmas greetings and pictures were displayed in the halls during the Yule season. German Club members co-operated on this project as well as on the hall caroling in German on the last day before Christmas vacation.

On the lighter side, the club members held a pot-luck supper in March and a picnic in the spring.

Future Farmers Arouse Interest in Agriculture

Training in agriculture, leadership, responsibility, and public speaking was all a part of the program of the F.F.A.

Members of the Future Farmers of America participated in contests, projects, and conventions and many other activities.

Officers of the group were Alvin Soderman, president; Dewayne Tautges, vice president; Richard Thesing, secretary; Dale DeRosier, treasurer; Donald Trusty, reporter; and David Horak, sentinel. These officers represented the Brainerd Chapter at the National F.F.A. Convention in Kansas City.

Selling ice cream to students during the noon hour was one of their most popular money raisers, as each school day throughout the year many hungry high school students patronized the F.F.A. ice cream stand. The members also sold Christmas cards to earn money.

Members held their annual banquet November 1. Dr. Matalamahi from the University of Minnesota was the guest speaker at the affair. Members also attended the District F.F.A. Banquet held in April.

Guiding the group in its many activities was their adviser, Mr. Elwood Wessman.

They Work To Be Efficient Homemakers

The aim of the FHA was to help members become the future homemakers of America. Through the study of foods, meals, clothes, sewing, and interior decorating, the girls learned much to help prepare for their future lives as homemakers.

October 28 the Future Homemakers of America made a roaring start by attending the District meeting in Aitkin. Brainerd representatives gave an emblem service and sang with the district chorus. When elections were held for the district officers, Brainerdites were proud to learn that Pat Austin was a candidate for district president. In March the Future Homemakers were represented at the state meeting in Minneapolis with four from the Brainerd FHA chapter chosen to go. Pat Austin was on the state membership committee.

Because traffic safety was the national FHA project last year, members here made interesting, eye-catching posters to help promote it.

Members of the club also sold candy at a bake sale with all profits going for the Mother-Daughter Banquet which was held in April. One of the FHA's projects was the offering of catering services for all banquets held during the school year. They also sponsored a school dance after one of the basketball games.

Installation of new officers was held on September 13. President was Beverly McKay with her cousin Barb McKay as Vice-President. Secretary was Judy Gilson; Treasurer, Carol Koering; Historian, June Stanley; Reporter, Pat Austin; Song Leader, Celeste Johnston; and Parliamentarian, Nancy Harnois.

Mrs. Joyce Mueller served as adviser for the club.

Helping Others Fosters Friendship

Led by President Pat DeRosier, the Future Nurses of America made bi-weekly visits to the Brainerd State School and Hospital, bringing cookies, entertainment, and an afternoon of fun to some of the patients at the State Hospital.

At the beginning of the year, some of the members of the club helped with the Mantoux tuberculin inoculation. The members of the club also helped to cover books at the State Hospital, to promote the Red Cross drive at school, and to collect for Christmas Seals. Girls who had study halls assisted in the health room during various six-weeks periods.

To raise money, the club held a bake-sale in a downtown store early in the year and sponsored a dance after the first home basketball game. The club also sponsored a booth at the Foreign Student Carnival.

Last year the girls of the Future Nurses of America collected and donated items for a Thanksgiving basket which was given to a needy family in the Brainerd area.

As their main project for the year, the members of the club took a bus trip to St. Paul to the Sister Kenny Institute, which is a hospital and rehabilitation center for polio victims.

Club officers were: President, Pat DeRosier; Vice-President, Pat Freeman; Secretary, Judy Ackerson; Treasurer, Marsha Skiba; and Historian, Maureen Gavin. The advisers for the group were Miss Lucille Luukkonen and Mrs. Hilda Vergin.

During the year the club helped many and gained for themselves a better understanding of the nursing profession.

A Good Book Is a Lasting Friend

Library Club members provided service for Washington High School in various ways. Their circulative work consisted of checking in and out books, filing book cards, and replacing returned materials. Visual materials were also circulated through the library.

Other services which they performed consisted of preparing new books for circulation, pasting on the pockets, applying protective plastic covers, and collecting library passes each hour. Marred and abused books were repaired by willing workers of the club.

To put us in holiday moods, the Library Club put up special displays and various decorations.

As their special project, the club gave gifts and food to a needy family in Brainerd at Christmas.

An unpleasant service which the members performed was the issuing of overdue notices to students with late books.

Adviser for the group was Miss Lois White.

G.A.A. Stresses Physical Fitness

The Girls' Athletic Association provided girls the opportunity to improve themselves physically. In GAA body conditioning was stressed along with striving to obtain a better sense of balance and coordination on various apparatus.

The motto of the GAA was "An activity for everybody and everybody in an activity." Certainly the GAA's curriculum followed this pattern. In the fall and winter volleyball and basketball games and tournaments were played. The Sophomore GAA upset the Junior-Senior GAA in both tournaments. Invited by the WHS GAA, the Pillager club played a competitive basketball game with them on February 28.

With spring's new vitality and life sprouting from all clubs of WHS, the GAA took to the outdoors for softball games. Both GAA's attended the annual spring all-sports playday held at Crosby. In May the Junior-Senior GAA went to St. Cloud to the annual college playday.

Sports managers, responsible for the promotion of her own designated sport, were, Sue Erickson, basketball; Minna Luther, volleyball; Mary Ludwig, softball; and Georgia Benson, spring sports. Helen Zahn was elected president, Minna Luther, vice-president; Georgia Benson, secretary-treasurer; Sue Tomljanovich, sergeant-at-arms.

Adviser for the groups was Miss Frances Hedner.

Thespians Encourage Dramatic Activities

"Act well your part, there all honor lies." This line from the English poet, Alexander Pope's, "The Essay of Man," was the motto of Troupe 1139 Thespians. Each member strived to carry it out to the best of his ability.

Throughout the year this national society's goal was to stimulate interest in dramatic activities among the students.

To begin the year, the small group of five seniors, under Miss Shirley, the advisor, sponsored the one-act play, "Sitters in Revolt," with an all-sophomore cast. The play was directed and staged by Thespians.

In January an impressive initiation for new members was held. The new members pledged to be loyal Thespians. In May members held a similar initiation.

To close the year, a fun-filled picnic was enjoyed by all members.

They Provide Safe Passage for Students

Providing safe passage at intersections for W.H.S. students going to and from school was the primary aim of the school's traffic patrol.

Throughout the year this patrol, headed by officers Albin Wolvert and David Horak, and advised by Mr. Robert Miller, provided service by guiding the students across busy intersections.

Every noon they were on duty to assist students going home for lunch and every night they aided students leaving the school.

It can truly be said that these boys rendered a great service to the school and to motor traffic along Oak Street.

As a reward for their services, the patrol members attended a dinner and movie sponsored by the American Legion. A spring picnic was also held for the patrol members.

Gary Petersen, Diane Morgan, and Sherlee Christianson, wait patiently for patrolman Donald Trusty to aid them in crossing the street.

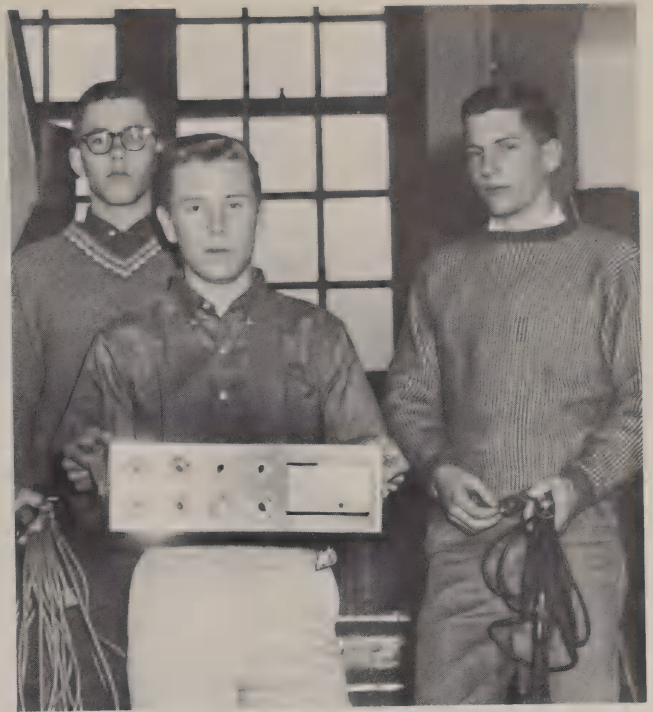

Patrol officers David Horak and Albin Wolvert prepare for afternoon duty.

They Bring Us Sight and Sound

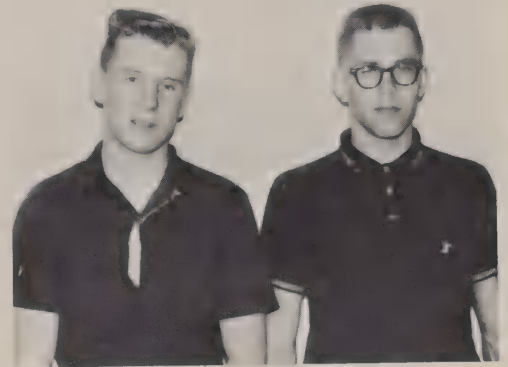

THE PUBLIC ADDRESS CREW, advised by Mr. Haglin, served the school in many ways. At basketball games they set up the announcing system and provided an announcer. Extra-curricular organizations asked the crew's assistance in setting up the music system for dances. Members of the crew also operated the lights for plays and concerts. The boys of the P.A. Crew gained valuable knowledge and experience while providing valuable service to the school.

THE VISUAL AIDS CLUB performed many duties which included scheduling films for class hours, ordering films, checking invoices, and showing movies. Boys in the club worked hard, learned responsibility, and gained a sense of achievement while providing a valuable service for their school. Aiding the group were assistant director, Phillip Houle, and adviser, Mr. John McDonald.

Cheerleaders Promote

What makes a good cheerleader? He must have agility, pep, spirit, and sportsmanship. He must have the ability to instill spirit and enthusiasm in his fellow students.

The cheerleading squad had much to do to fulfill the qualities expected of them. A-squad cheerleaders went right to work in the fall at football games, pep fests, and practice sessions.

In the winter the cheerleaders were again busy with practice sessions and pep fests. Basketball rather than football was their main interest. At all the basketball games, the cheerleaders were present to instill school spirit and to lead the team to victory.

The A-squaders pose on the ladder of success, prepared to cheer their team to the top.

School Spirit

Present at most basketball games and pep fests were the peppy B-squad cheerleaders. Chosen in the fall, Connie Marshall, Penny Roberts, Connie Isle, Susan Anderson, and Virginia Wolleat, strove to cheer the B-squad on to victory. All sophomores, these girls worked toward becoming the A-squad cheerleaders for the next year.

Miss Frances Hedner served as adviser for both squads.

B-squad cheerleaders, Connie Marshall, Connie Isle, Ginny Wolleat, Susan Anderson, and Penny Roberts, lead the crowd in one of their many cheers.

Art Stimulates Creativity

After a few years absence, an Art Club was again organized in the school.

Many individual projects started the year for the members under Mrs. Matthies and Mr. Gene Bordwell, the advisors.

The Christmas season was especially busy for them. A dance was held before vacation featuring the creative decorations of the club. The group also made attractive Christmas Cards and sold them to the faculty and the student body.

A huge colored glass mosaic, an abstract of the Seattle World's Fair of 1962, was donated to the school and marked completion of a successful year for the art club.

Industrial Arts Club Develops Skillful Workers

How does it feel to be a new-born club at WHS? Organized for the first time this year, the Industrial Arts Club certainly found out as the group began to strengthen itself. Since it was so new, it had many plans. One of its chief aims was to raise enough money for a scholarship for the most talented person in industrial arts to help him to become a teacher in this field.

The purpose of the club was to give the industrial arts students a chance to get together and gain recognition for their talents in this field.

To raise money, the club helped the faculty by mending, gluing, making new parts, and doing odd jobs at a minimum charge.

Members of the club visited the Little Falls Boatworks and various woodworking plants in St. Cloud and Little Falls on an excursion trip in late April.

Elected as officers for the club were Tom Weinhandl, president; Clifford Tornow, vice-president; and Barry Larson, secretary-treasurer.

Mr. Robert Miller served as advisor for the group.

FACULTY and

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Sater instructs his secretary in one of the many phases of school business.

Administration Directs School Functions

Supervising and directing the school were the chief duties of the administration. Composed of the Superintendent of schools, the principal, the guidance counselors, and the school board, the administration worked to maintain smooth functioning of the school system.

From his office in WHS, Mr. J. A. Sater, Superintendent of schools, was responsible for the efficient operation of all the Brainerd schools. He was concerned with such matters as construction and maintenance of buildings, hiring of teachers, and balancing the school budget.

Mr. D. C. Adamson, high school principal, performed many duties to keep the school running smoothly. Maintaining student discipline, issuing absence slips and tardy passes, and supervising school activities were some of his daily tasks.

The guidance department aided the student body in various ways. Mr. Delmar Smith, Guidance Director, and Mr. Randall McCune, Guidance Counselor, administered various ability tests, provided vocational information, and met with individual students to aid them in planning their futures.

Meeting at least once a month, the school board had general charge of the schools of the district. The board worked with the superintendent to carry out school business and formulate school policies.

Composing the school board are, STANDING; Wayne Huso, Clarence Lepinski, Birney Wilkins. SITTING; Ray Madison, Dell Erickson, Mrs. Bea Ross.

Mr. Adamson assumes a pose familiar to many students who come to him for tardy passes.

Mr. Smith posts some data on the bulletin board in the main hall, where students can find the latest information from the guidance department.

Mr. McCune finds the answer to a student's inquiry by securing some scholarship information.

A thorough knowledge of the English language in all its phases is a valuable asset in a world dependent upon clear communication. The WHS English department strives to give its students just such a knowledge. The three year English course is divided into two sections — the study of grammar and the study of literature. Through study of punctuation, spelling, vocabulary, and sentence structure, the student gains a basic knowledge of the English language and skill in applying it. The study of literature guides the student in the world of reading and develops his skill of interpretation. Creative writing, a new course this year, provides the student the opportunity to develop his writing skills.

History Links Past to Present

A study of history enables the student to gain insight into the enduring qualities of man. By studying the past, the student learns of man's achievements and failures. By studying world history, sophomores learn of the events of the past which shaped the world into what it is today. Juniors study American history, which reveals our nation in its early stages. By tracing the development of America from its beginning into the present, students learn of the many trials and triumphs of the nation. Senior social studies deals mainly with the present. Students study American government, social life, economics, and current world affairs. This course equips students to fulfill their responsibilities as citizens by providing vital knowledge of government and economics. A knowledge of man's culture develops values in the student that will serve as guideposts toward high standards of conduct and ethical living.

Mr. Brown demonstrates the correct form to his typing class.

An important part of the educational system of WHS is its vocational training program. Because many students go to work immediately after high school graduation, the school offers various courses to prepare them for useful vocations. The business program offered includes courses in bookkeeping, consumer education, clerical practice, office practice, shorthand, occupational relations, retail selling, and typing. Notehand and business law are two new courses offered this year. After taking many of these courses, students are prepared to accept positions in various fields of business. Home economics courses prepare girls to be efficient homemakers.

Speech, Languages Strengthen Verbal Ability

Extensive training in the arts of language and speech is offered to WHS students. Foreign languages offered are Latin and German. These languages strengthen and complement the area studies of other countries, serve the special needs of students in preparation for college, and provide a background for further language study. Knowledge of foreign languages also increases proficiency in English. Speech courses offer students the opportunity to learn to express themselves verbally. In speech class students gain skill in preparing and delivering individual speeches as well as participating in group activities such as parliamentary procedure and discussion. The library is equipped to handle subjects of all types. Skilled librarians are always present to aid students in using the library. This essential part of the school provides a place for quiet study, research, and reading enjoyment.

Students are enabled to sharpen their mental and physical abilities by participation in physical education and mathematics. Because of limited facilities only sophomores are able to take physical education. Sophomores take a full time course which provides them with the opportunity to improve themselves physically. The physical education program includes such activities as tumbling, competitive sports, gymnastics, and fundamental exercises.

Students are able to better develop their reasoning power and ability to concentrate in mathematics classes. Mathematics courses offered are plane geometry, solid geometry, advanced algebra, and trigonometry. After taking many of these courses, students have an ample background for further study in the mathematics field.

Arts Improve Cultural Appreciation

Extensive learning opportunities are offered to WHS students in the fields of art and music. Art aids the student who wishes to enlarge his artistic powers and also gives him basic training toward a career in some phase of art practice. In art class the student learns the fundamentals of sketching and painting as well as many other artistic skills. Woodworking offers the student the chance to improve his skills in construction. Industrial arts teaches skills in making things of metal and wood. Rudiments of Music enables a student to understand the art of music composition. The music student learns to appreciate fine music while improving his skill in the field. Participation in choir improves a student's vocal skills while membership in the band helps him to develop his instrumental ability.

Scientific knowledge is essential in the modern world. Science is the basis of all material progress. Students at WHS are offered many courses to further their scientific knowledge. In biology class, students study the various levels of plant and animal life. Students in physics class increase their understanding of matter and motion. The chemistry course offers to students knowledge of the basic elements and their composition. Senior social science deals with the elementary problems of science and its relation to everyday living.

What is life
But a great, dark, empty place
Without the light of friendship
To brighten our way.

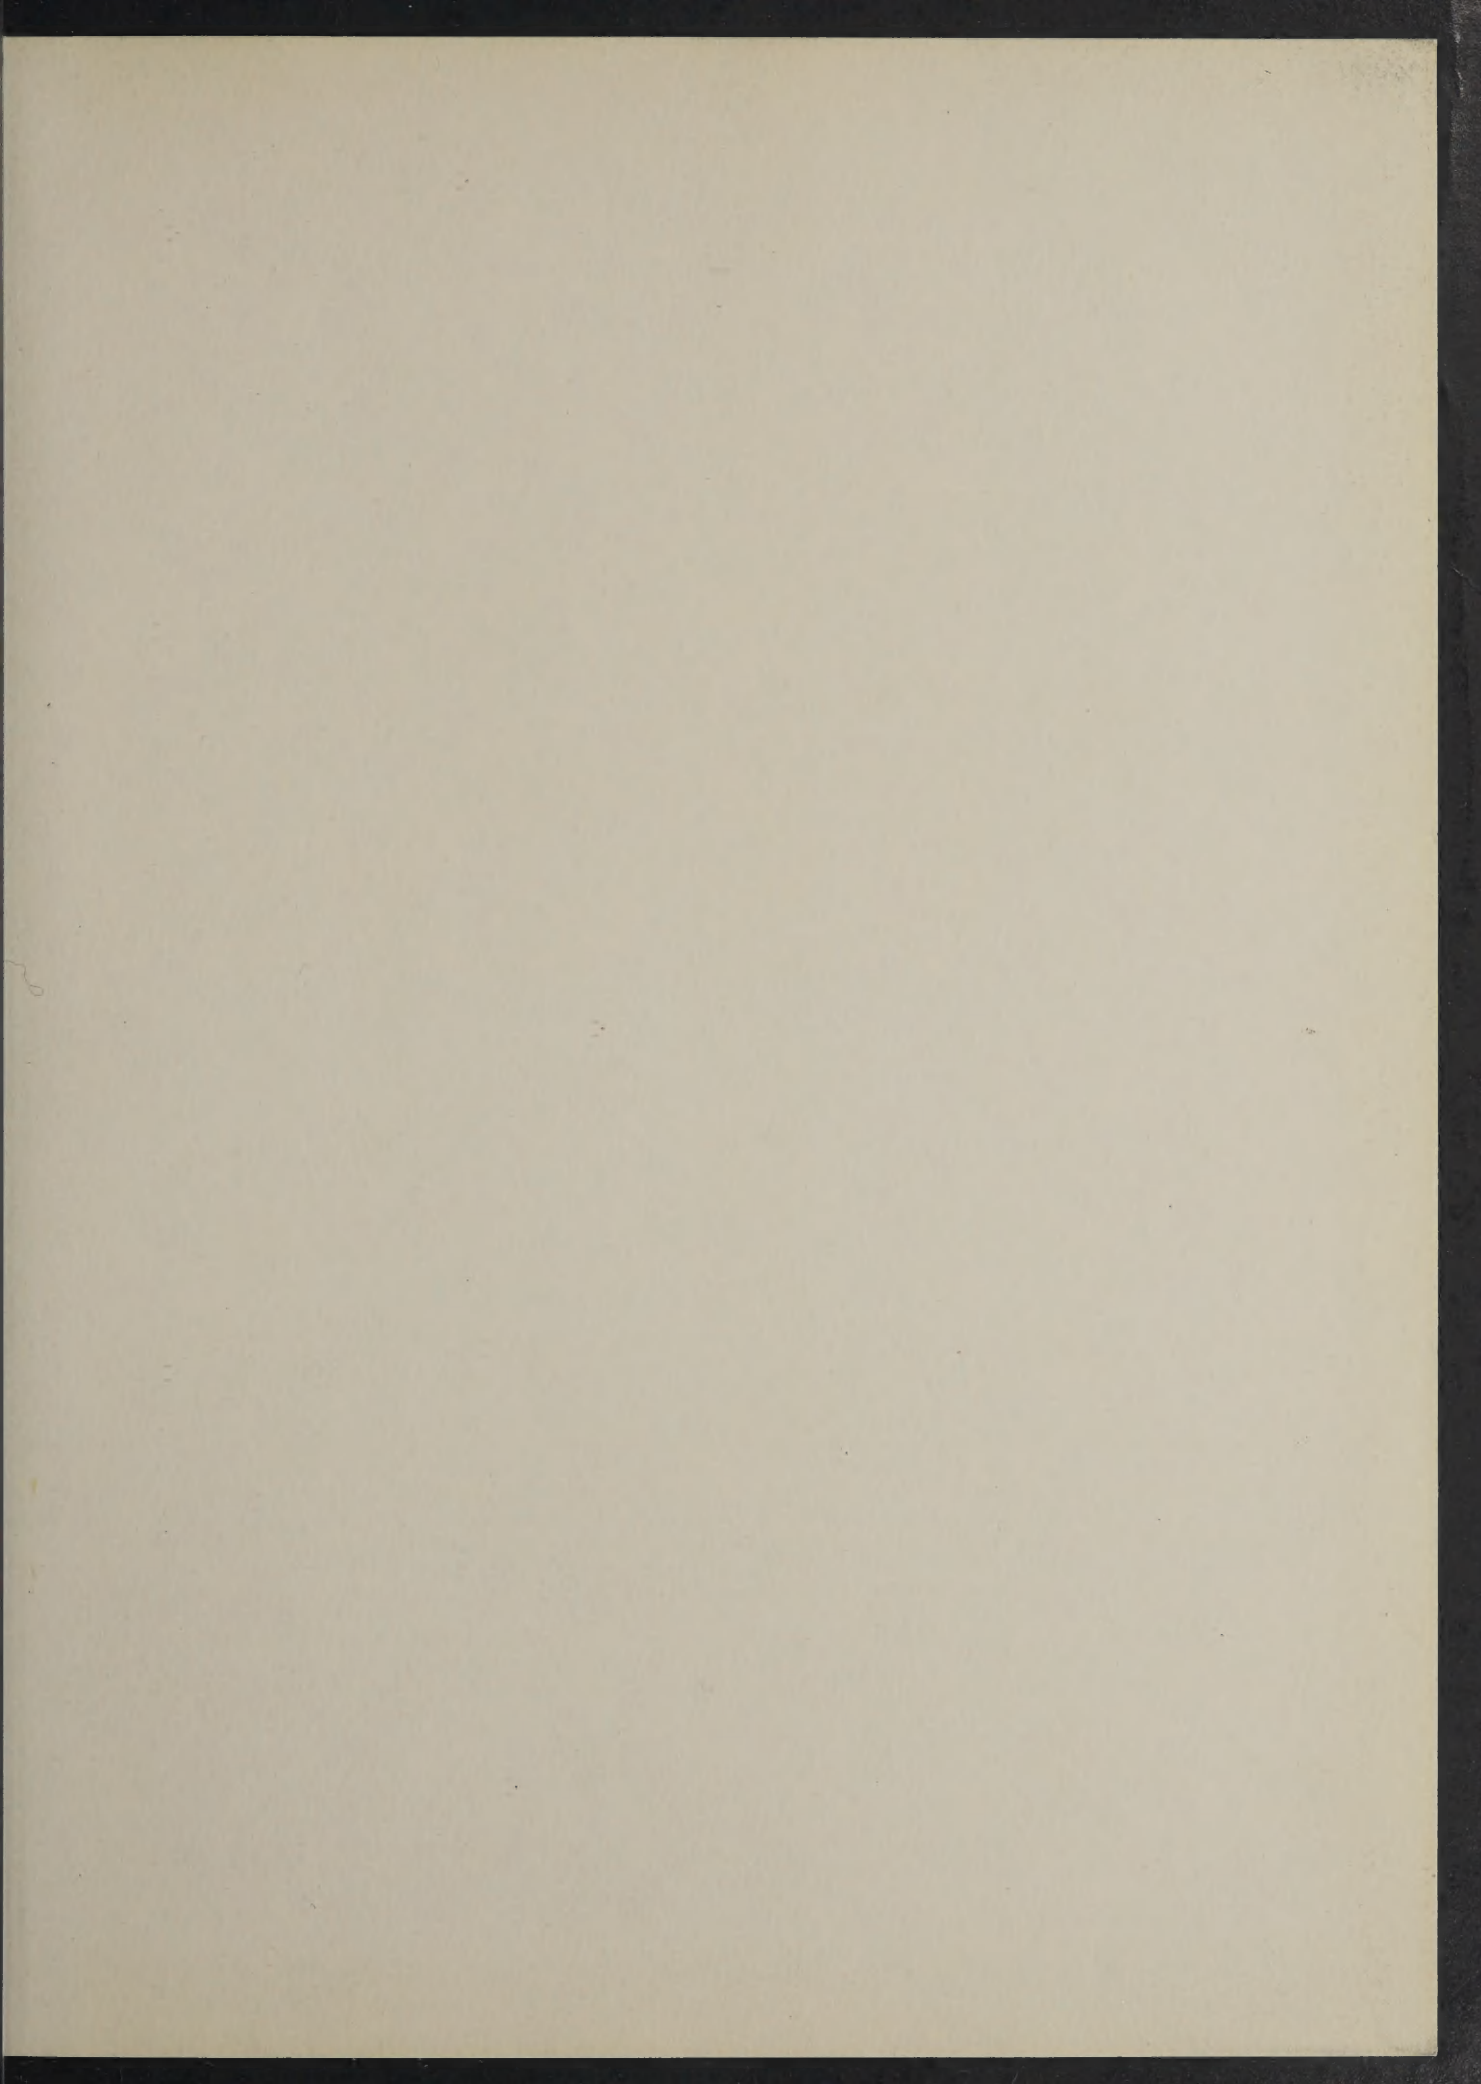

TJM

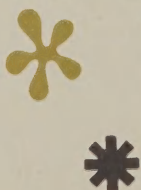

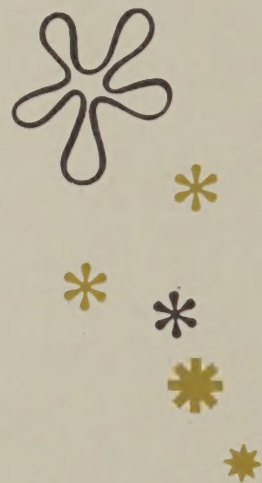

Our special thanks to Miss Joyce Hippe, Mr. Del Nowatzki, John Erickson, Jerry Peters, Mary Brower, Joan McWhir, and others for their contributions to the 1962 Brannonian.
